FELLOW NUMISMATISTS:-

It is with great pleasure that we present to you in this catalog a major portion of the JOHN M. WILLEM Reference Library. Each of you knows the master reference prepared by Mr. Willem on the Trade Dollars of the United States. This work is but a sample of his many studies. Naturally, he needed a reference library of his own. You now have an opportunity to acquire one or more of these many books for your own library, especially if it covers a series that holds great interest for you.

We cannot overstress the importance of a library for your own knowledge and as a most valuable adjunct to your collecting pleasure. One coin properly attributed may pay for an expensive book. In other words, books cost almost nothing when used competently. Study these offerings. You may successfully bid for hundreds of dollars worth of books, and save or earn thousands of dollars for your numismatic activities.

In this catalog we also present the ERIC J. LIFF Collection of Orders, Decorations and Medals of the World. These form an interesting supplement to any numismatic collection. We offer you many scarce and attractive items - most of them shown in half size.

Our next sale in the early autumn will offer a broad range of British Colonial Paper Money, as well as many Coins of the World, including the United States. We expect you will find more than one item for yourself.

We again will present the Auction Sale at the Fourth New York International Numismatic Convention, which will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, December 5th, 6th and 7th, in the Americana Hotel. Plan to be there.

We already have a major consignment of Latin American and British Colonial Banknotes, Specimens and Proofs. Other important pieces have been received or are on their way. If you have a treasure or two that you want to present to an interested group of buyers, please get in touch with us in the near future. Deadlines approach sooner than one expects them.

Our well proven Mail Auctions are a good alternate to the public sales, especially for the medium value items. Perhaps part of your holdings should be included in one of our coming mail auctions, while a number of your expensive items should be presented to a floor audience as well as a mail audience. We can meet your needs and we do solicit your offerings, whether for direct purchase or on consignment to auction.

You also will note in this catalog a further listing of the master work on Cuban Tokens prepared by our good friend, the knowledgeable scholar, Roberto Pesant. One of these days we will have completed the listings and we can edit the final manuscript in preparation for printing.

By requiring additional packing, the time necessary to ship all of the books of this auction sale will be greater than normal. Do try to be patient and bear with us.

ALL THE BEST

THE TRANSPORTATION TOKENS OF CUBA

by Roberto Pesant

Note: Numbers between brackets correspond to the classification of the American Vecturist Association.

PRESA CARRETERAS - Habana

- 600 No Value - 31 mm - Octagonal - White Metal
 Obv: A two wheeled covered coach drawn by a pair of horses, to the right; the driver astride the nearest horse. Two passengers are inside coach. Around, on the part, FERNANDEZ RAMIREZ Y CIA
 Rev: The same horse drawn coach, but to the left. Around, on the upper part, EMPRESA CARRETERAS

Listed in COIN COLLECTOR'S JOURNAL 1887, Vol. LXII, pgs 23-26. Listed in Fonrobert Catalog II, No. 7741, pg 813 & illustrated with a line drawing. Dated, (1860?). Although I have never seen this token, I believe there is an error in the drawing & in the description of the Reverse; the legend should read with an "R" and not an "L"; CARRETERAS, which means "Roadways". The translation would then read correctly, "Road (transport) Enterprise".

BEA & CO. - Matanzas

- 501 One Fare - 35 mm - Brass
 Obv: In two lines, the first one curved, M. BEA & CO/ MATANZAS All incuse.
 Rev: In two lines, 1/PASAGE All incuse.

The date is uncertain but probably ca. 1870. Believed to belong to a horse drawn coach line that started by the old wharves, past the Plaza de Armas and up hill toward the Ermita de Monserrate.

- 502 One Trip - 35 mm - Brass
 Obv: Same as foregoing
 Rev: In two lines, 1/VIAGE All incuse.

COMPANIA DEL FERROCARRIL DE LA BAHIA - Habana

- 603 (480-C) No Value - 19.5 mm - Nickel
 Obv: An old fashioned 4-0-4 locomotive to right; with smoke pouring out of its high stack. Around, COMPANIA DEL FERROCARRIL DE LA BAHIA - DEL in smaller letters.
 Rev: A steamboat to left; smoke pouring out of its stack & flags flying from prow and stern masts. Below, around, HABANA . 1881

The translation of the Obverse reads: "The Bay Railroad Company"

- 604 (480-B) No Value - 19.5 mm - Copper
 Same as foregoing except for metal.
 605 No Value - 19.5 mm - Copper
 Same as foregoing except for a very thick planchet.

These tokens were probably worth 1/2 Real (5 Cents). The company was formed in 1837 - the second oldest railroad in Cuba - and was merged in 1858. It went for 12 kilometers to Guanabacoa and much later to Matanzas, a hundred kilometers. The steamboats portrayed on Reverse crossed the harbor from Luz, on the Havana side, to Regla, Casablanca & Fesser, where the railroad had its terminus. There were three boats in the company; ALFONSO XII, MARIA ISABEL & MARIA CRISTINA; the last two named for the Royal Princesses of Spain.

EMPRESA DE VAPORES DE LA BAHIA - Habana

- 606 (480-D) No Value - 22 mm - Nickel
 Obv: Ferryboat steaming to left. Around, EMPRESA DE VAPORES DE LA BAHIA * HABANA *
 Rev: A 4-4-0 locomotive with a

FO. CL is the contraction for FERRO-CARRIL, "Railroad". The translation of the Obverse is, "Bay Steamboat Enterprise". LA PRUEBA is the name of the Railroad and J. CABRERO the owner.

This token was described by B.P. Wright, M.D. in an article, with line drawing illustration, in THE NUMISMATIST issue of Dec. 1902, Vol. XV, No. 12. However, the author mistakenly translated LA PRUEBA in its literal sense "Railroad, the experiment of J. Cabrero". Actually, the name of the railroad is derived from the region it served. It was a very short run, going from Regla to Cojimar and to Campo Florido, some twenty odd kilometers away. In all fairness, there is some doubt about the information set forth herein.

607 No Value - 22 mm - Copper

Same as foregoing except for metal.

608 Five Cents (Counterstamped) - 22 mm - Copper

Same as foregoing except for value counterstamped on either side.

It is believed that the reason for this specific value counterstamp lies in the fact that the Railroad was later merged with the other one that went to Matanzas (see notes on tokens 602-604) & therefore these tokens were used only for fare in the steamboats exclusively.

The ferryboat company was the successor of the one also described in the foregoing tokens, and they ran until the depression years of the '30s. The boat pictured in the token corresponds to the two sister ships, GUANABACOA and MANUEL UNDERDAWN.

These tokens are from ca. 1890.

HAVANA ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANY Habana

609 (480-G) One Fare - 18 Nickel

Obv: Within the perfor center the enjoin company initials, Around, within two concentric circles, ELECTRIC RAILWAY

Rev: Same as foregoing for legend around, POR UN PASAJE

610 (480-H) One Fare - 18 Bronze Plated

Same as foregoing except metal.

This trolley car company, founded around 1900 and also was established for Santiago. Beyond Havana's limits it obtained the franchise for neighboring Matanzas as a railroad, so that acrossing the Almendares the cars had to be provided green & red lanterns. The was Five Cents, but after Second World War it was raised to Seven Cents. During Thirties, however, one cent 'rolls' of 22 tokens for passengers with the public company. The company also obtained a franchise to run buses known as "Tranbuses" - contraction of Tranvia (Tram) and Autobus - but it was short-lived. The tokens were used distinctively in the trolley in the buses. The trolley discontinued in 1952 and their tracks torn up.

These tokens were struck by Scoville Mfg. Co., Waterbury Conn.

OMNIBUS DE LA HABANA - Habana

611 (480-E) Half Fare - 1 Nickel

Obv: Within the perfor center a vertical with the company's initials in two lines O/H Around, within concentric circles

OMNIBUS DE LA HABANA

Rev: On the center strip, the value, 1/2 Around, within two concentric circles, VALE POR MEDIO PASAJE

The translation for the Reverse is "Worth One Half Fare".

This bus company was founded in the late 1920s but it was short lived. It was a "de luxe" type of service but was unable to compete with the other lines since it charged Ten Cents as against Five for the other ones. The reason for this curious Half Fare value was that as an incentive, toward its waning years, it 'gave' a Half Fare token for every two dimes collected. In other words, if a passenger asked for 'round trip', he would give the conductor Twenty Cents and get back three Half Fares. Two of these hoarded tokens paid, then, for one way.

612 (480-F) Half Fare - 15 mm - Bronze

Same as foregoing except for metal.

OMNIBUS DE SANTA CLARA - Santa Clara

613 (700-A) No Value - 22 mm - Nickel

Obv: Within a circle, the letter B Around, OMNIBUS DE SANTA CLARA S.A.

Rev: Same as Obverse

614 No Value - 22 mm - Brass
Same as foregoing except for metal.

The foregoing are for the bus line of the city of Santa Clara. The fare was Five Cents. The "B" may stand for the owners of the company Balbin(?). S.A. stands for "Sociedad Anonima" which means "Corporation".

Rev: Around, CAMAGUEY UN PASAJE

616 (180-B) One Fare - 22 mm - White Metal

Same as foregoing except the letter P instead of X

The legend on the Obverse translates, "Trolley Car Company". The meaning of the letters "X" and "P" are uncertain.

OMNIBUS LA CUBANA - Santiago

617 (720-A) No Value - 15 mm - Nickel

Obv: Within the perforated center, the initials F F enjoined askew. Around, TRANSFERENCIA SANTIAGO DE CUBA

Rev: The reverse of the letters FF Around, OMNIBUS * LA CUBANA *

618 No Value - 15 mm - Brass

Same as foregoing except for metal.

These tokens are not really Fares, but Transfers, as may be gathered by the legend on the Obverse. The value of a fare was Five Cents, and of a transfer One Cent.

This urban bus line was later sold to the railroad company, FERROCARRILES CONSOLIDADOS DE CUBA (Consolidated Railways of Cuba) and a franchise was obtained to give bus service from Santiago to Havana, nearly one thousand kilometers distant. The initials FF are Ferrocarriles (Railways). In Spanish the plural is always indicated by doubling the first initial of the noun. For example, United States is abbreviated thus, EE. UU. (Estados Unidos).

COMPANIA DE TRANVIAS DE CAMAGUEY - Camaguey

615 (180-A) One Fare - 22 mm - White metal

Obv: In the center, the letter X Around, COMPANIA DE TRANVIAS
